MANUAL -1Particulars of Organization, functions and duties. [Section 4 (1) (b) (i) of RTI Act, 2005].

The Kohima Bench of the Gauhati High Court was inaugurated as a Circuit Bench on 1st December, 1972. Thereafter, in exercise of the power conferred by sub-section (2) of section 31 of the North Eastern Areas (Reorganisation Act, 1971 (81 of 1971), the President of India, after consultation with the Chief Justice of the Gauhati High Court and the Governor of Nagaland, the Kohima Bench of the Gauhati High Court was declared a Permanent Bench vide Notification No.GSR.73 (E) dated 7th February, 1990. The Permanent Bench known as the Kohima Bench was inaugurated on the 10th February, 1990 by Hon'ble Mr. Justice Subyasachi Mukherji, the then Chief Justice of India.

The High Court as the custodian and guardian of the fundamental rights and freedoms of the people and their constitutional rights has an awesome responsibility.

The Judiciary interprets the Constitution as its final arbiter. It is its duty as mandated by the Constitution, to be its guardian, by calling for scrutiny any act of the legislature or the executive, who otherwise, are free to enact or implement these, from overstepping bounds set for them by the Constitution. It acts like a guardian in protecting the fundamental rights of the people, as enshrined in the Constitution, from infringement by any organ of the state. It also balances the conflicting exercise of power between the centre and a state or among states, as assigned to them by the Constitution.

While pronouncing decisions under its constitutional mandate, it is expected to remain unaffected by pulls and pressures exerted by other branches of the state, citizens or interest groups. And crucially, independence of the judiciary has been held to be a basic feature of the Constitution, and which being inalienable, has come to mean - that which cannot be taken away from it by any act or amendment by the legislature or the executive.
